

THE ART OF DESIGN

From the anticipated opening of Eichholtz's showroom in the Miami Design District to Society Social's 11-piece capsule furniture collection with The Colony Hotel, new product introductions, and NSU Art Museum's first permanent acquisitions chosen by the members of its Curator Circle ("High Tide" and "Itchy Skin" by Zoe Schweiger), memorable art and design moments have been popping up all over South Florida. Here are a few of our favorites. By Jesse Bratter

Elia Nedkov designed the Kabà indoor-outdoor collection for Paola Lenti, shown here alongside Bistrò umbrellas, the Telar chair and the Giunco armchair crafted with a bent metal frame and handwoven Twiggy rope, paolalenti.it

Pavilion's Sandcastle bar table and stools are reminiscent of sandcastles built along a coastline, pavilion-furniture.com