

01. Sarah Nedovic, Monument series. Pulling inspiration from the shapes and patterns of the figurative Spomenik monuments of her ancestral Eastern Europe, these handmade light pieces by Melbourne-based ceramic artist Sarah Nedovic tell a story of cultural nostalgia, artistic innovation and purposeful craftsmanship. Each flute is meticulously handcrafted from raw sculpting clay and left intentionally unglazed to create a warm ambience when lit, while the earthy texture acts as a counterbalance to each bold cylinder silhouette as the glow of light emanates from within. 02. Paola Lenti Wave outdoor sunbed.

First designed by Paola Lenti's long-time collaborator Francesco Rota 25 years ago, the Wave outdoor chaise longue exudes chic simplicity. Manufactured in Italy with a durable fixed-weave cover that is handwoven with rope cord, this latest edition features a star-like pattern inspired by the complex knots of Japanese tradition. Available in a choice of three pattern options—all in vibrant colourways—this iconic piece makes a striking, fun and functional addition to any poolside scene. POA. dedece.com

03. Fendi x Piero Lissoni Ohe outdoor table.

This marble-topped coffee table (pictured in Verde Alpi) exemplifies sophisticated design. Inspired by the lush scenery of the Philippines, the table has been crafted with woven bamboo cane and rattan, while the sleek marble tabletop—available in a choice of finishes—features an engraved logo design. Marrying form and function, innovation and durability, it's sure to bring a touch of tropical charm to any outdoor space. POA. palazzocollezioni.com.au
