

Clockwise from top left A custom, locally made oak desk is paired with a Hay chair and table lamp by Wästberg; the internal courtyard, with armchairs by Paola Lenti and side tables by Gervasoni (left) and Riva 1920; the view to the 'round room' with Louise Weaver's suspended macramé sculpture Capsize (2009); in the forecourt, a mature olive tree casts a shadow onto the curved sprayed-concrete wall ➤

Clockwise from top left The pantry, in oak and travertine, offers a glimpse of sunshine through the trademark Leeton Pointon 'tiny window'; the undercover courtyard features a bronze table by local artisan Barbera Design, a Paola Lenti armchair, stools by Riva 1920 and a custom built-in bench seat; looking into the cellar with its black-oak cabinetry and stepladder; the view from the hallway through to the kitchen, with a bespoke oak breakfast bench and crockery cupboard by Motto Furniture & Cabinetry, 'Cab 410' counter stools by Mario Bellini for Cassina and a Luceplan wall light >