

THE BRIGHT OUTDOORS

Attention-seeking colour palettes, gorgeous lines and material combinations are great news for everyone who loves to spend time and entertain - comfortably - outdoors. Lacy pieces in painted steel strike a lighter note.

For more beautiful products from Milan, turn to page 194.

3 OF A KIND:
METAL URGE

Work is Over stool by Diesel for Moroso; www.hubfurniture.com.au.

The Studio Job for Seletti cast-iron garden chair reinterprets classic designs. www.seletti.com.au.

Laser-cut iron outdoor sofa by Fratelli Campana for A Lot Of. alotof.com.br.

1 / Terrain Collection outdoor fabrics by Doshi Levien for Kettal; www.kettal.com. 2 / Air polyolefin outdoor rug by Paola Lenti; www.paolalenti.it/en. 3 / Netlight indoor/outdoor planter by Fabio Bortolani & Ermanno Righi for Serralunga. Illuminating pot at the top, protective structure at the bottom. www.serralunga.com/en. 4 / Elsie chair by Francesco Rota for Paola Lenti. 5 / The beautifully upholstered Butterfly modular outdoor sofa by Patricia Urquiola for B&B Italia is the ultimate in luxury for an outdoor room. www.spacefurniture.com.au. 6 / Rivera outdoor sofa by Rodolfo Dordoni for Minotti. www.minotti.com. 7 / This planter from the Movements by Philippe Malouin showcase for Caesarstone demonstrates one of the many uses for the material. www.caesarstone.com.au. 8 / The Curve bench, by Brodie Neill for Riva 1920, is carved from a single block of cedar. www.riva1920.it/en. 9 / Teka Collection bench by Gordon Guillaumier for Roda. www.gordon-guillaumier.com.